Homicide

Initial Response and Scene

St. Francis Police Officer Jason Beres reports that on July 16, 2026 at about 6:29 PM he and others responded to 3739 S. Packard Ave. St. Francis, Milwaukee County, Wisconsin after multiple 911 calls involving gunshots. At that location he observed a black Nissan Rogue with the engine running. The driver door was open and the passenger rear door was also open. On arrival citizens were pointing and in that direction he located a female, later identified by family as KMP, laying on the ground. She appeared to have been shot in the head. KMP had shallow breathing. She appeared to have a graze wound to the left side of her head, a gunshot wound slightly below her sternum, two (2) gunshot wounds to her lower back, a gunshot wound to her upper back and a gunshot wound to her left side near her ribcage.

Statement of JLD

JLD was interviewed. JLD said that she heard five (5) shots, but initially thought they might be fireworks. She looked out of her window and saw a male individual outside of the black car. The male walked to his car, then hesitated and went to the passenger side of the black vehicle and did a "downward motion with his arm and fired his gun." He then went around the car and shot the female three (3) more times.

JLD yelled at him and the male went back into his car, the blue sedan and fled with a child in the back seat.

Officers indicate that Lenyard was arrested in a blue sedan.

Statement of DAC

St. Francis Police Officer Jackson Hague reports that he spoke to the sister of Randall Lenyard, Sr. on July 16, 2026 about the homicide of KMP.

DAC said that she was the sister of Lenyard. She further stated that the child of Lenyard and KMP was now safe and with her.

DAC said that Lenyard has been stalking KMP for months and that she has been talking to Lenyard everyday begging him to leave KMP alone. DAC said she loved KMP and that she was "our family" and that she had been encouraging KMP to get a restraining order. KMP had called DAC and asked her to tell Lenyard to leave her/KMP alone. DAC said that KMP had filed for an earlier restraining order, but that Lenyard had "sucked her back in" and got her not to go to court. CCAP records show that an earlier Petition for a Restraining order was filed on April 14, 2026 and that it was dismissed on April 27, 2026 when the petitioner failed to appear.

DAC explained that KMP and Lenyard have a custody arrangement involving seven (7) days alternating with each other that typically began on Thursday nights. July 16, 2026 was a Thursday.

DAC said that Lenyard has no history of drug abuse or mental health issues.

DAC said that Lenyard has been "running" as he thought that there was a warrant out of his arrest regarding a prior matter involving Lenyard and KMP. Since it was Thursday (July 16, 2026) he went to pick up his son. They decided to meet at their old apartment located at 3739 S. Packard Ave., St. Francis, Milwaukee County, Wisconsin.

DAC stated that Lenyard texted her "I shot her." DAC then called KMP's phone and she did not answer. When KMP did not answer she called Lenyard and spoke to him.

Lenyard told her: "I fucking shot her. I lost my shit. I can't do this shit no more. I'm about to do this to RJ and myself."

DAC then hung up on Lenyard and called 911 to report this. While she was on the phone with 911 she texted Lenyard to get the location where KMP was shot to see if she could be saved.

Lenyard told her: "She saw me pull my gun out. She got out of the car and started to run so I shot her. She started screaming so I knew she was still alive, so I just kept on shooting her." He went on to say, "I'm about to do it to myself and my son."

DAC then pleaded with Lenyard to let her take the child and Lenyard agreed, but said he would kill the child and himself if she pulled up with the police.

Initially they agreed to meet at a Best Buy, but a police car was there on an unrelated matter so they relocated to a Walgreens at 60th and Burleigh where he allowed DAC to get the child.

Lenyard said "I'm getting the fuck out of here because I don't want to kill my son. I keep looking at him, but I will do it to him."

Officers spoke to Lenyard's mom who said he told her that "if the police tried to get him, he was going to get in a shootout so that the police could kill him."

Statement of Randall Lenyard, Sr.

St. Francis Police Officer Kyle Gerasch reports that on July 17, 2026 he interviewed Randall Lenyard, Sr. regarding the death of KMP. Lenyard said he has lived with KMP as well as their son and his "step son."

Lenyard said he was not currently in a relationship and was single.

Lt. Marcus was also involved in the interview. Lenyard asked "did she pass?"

Lenyard was asked what happened last night (July 16, 2026) and said he went to pick up his son. He said he began to argue with KMP and she told him there was a warrant out for his arrest (in actuality a felony "want" and not a true warrant). Lenyard said "we started to argue and I [pause] shot her."

He also admitted he shot her as she was running away and he then left with his son.

Lenyard said he shot her with a Glock 23 and it was still in his car. Lenyard said his car was a blue Nissan Maxima. He said that KMP's vehicle was a black Nisan Rogue.

When asked to elaborate on where she was when he shot her he said KMP was still n the driver seat when he first shot her. He did not know if he "shot twice or once, but I shot." KMP then got out of the car and started to run. When asked where he was trying to shoot her he said "right at her face."

Lenyard chased after KMP as she ran and said "she kept looking back and I shot her again." "I don't know where it went, but it looked like it could have gone in her back."

Lenyard said, “she was screaming, and I saw blood, and I shot her again.” Lenyard said he “shot her where she fell, then he went around the car and shot, and then shot gain.”

The last two (2) times he shot her she was laying on the ground.

Death

St. Francis PO Kyle Holmes reports that KMP was transported from 3739 S. Packard Ave, St. Francis, Milwaukee County, Wisconsin to Froedtert Hospital. PO Holmes observed multiple gunshot injuries on KMP. Doctors advised PO Holmes that KMP succumbed to her wounds.

An autopsy was performed by Assistant Medical Examiner Lauren Decker who preliminarily noted multiple gunshot wounds, seven (7) wound tracks with a wound to the head and stippling to the face including three (3) wound tracks and as well as a wound to the nose. Gunshot wounds to the torso were observed as well as lacerations to the aorta, diaphragm, stomach, colon left kidney and spine.

Stalking

Petition for Temporary Restraining Order and Motion for Injunction

On July 16, 2026 KMP filed in Milwaukee County Case 26FA4009 a Petition for Temporary Restraining Order and Motion for Injunction against Randall Lenyard, Sr., the defendant. KMP sought a Domestic Abuse Injunction and had been granted a Temporary Restraining Order. In that Petition KMP alleged, among other things on or about the following dates: :

- January 1, 2026 the defendant placed an “Airtag tracker” on her car, which was subsequently removed.
- January 24, 2026 he began to “show up at my residence” and that she had videoed him doing this.
- January 29, 2026 Lenyard had flowers delivered to her job.
- February 2, 2026 Lenyard appeared at her house in the morning while she was working from home. Lenyard then proceeded to call her from outside her house telling her he did not see her car.
- February 15, 2026 Lenyard physically put his hands on her. After she arrived to drop off an item for their son Lenyard approached her car, threatened to hit her and as she exited her car put his hands around her neck and pinned her against the car. He did this in front of her two (2) children, KMP’s mother and her niece. KMP contacted the police regarding this incident and he was later arrested.
- April 11 or 12, 2026 Lenyard showed up at an undisclosed address KMP was at the hour prior and five (5) minutes after she had arrived home. Lenyard then asked her friends at the prior address if they knew her. Lenyard then went to her residence and began to knock on her door at 11:30. When KMP did not answer the door he began to call her phone number. KMP believed that there might have been another tracker on her car as she did not tell him where the undisclosed location she went to was or that she was going there.
- April 12, 2026 Called in the early morning hours to tell her that he had shot himself in the hand. He told her that he was going to kill himself because she did not want to be with him KMP was aware that he had been to the hospital and had seen pictures of his bandaged hand. He also told her “look what you made me do.”

KMP expressed concern in the Petition that Lenyard has “started to stalk me by showing up at my residence at random times thorough out the day, random times during the night and calling my phone a lot.” She stated Lenyard had been messaging her friends on social media platforms as well as her sister trying to get information about her. She also stated that Lenyard had offered people money to get information about whether she was dating and where she had been going.

KMP said in the Petition that “I’m scared of what he is going to do next.

Lenyard shot ad killed KMP on July 16, 2026, the day the Petition was filed.

Impersonation of Police Officer

Cudahy Police Officer Hannah Drummond reports that she spoke to KMP on July 15, 2026 regarding Lenyard. During that conversation KMP told PO Drummond that Lenyard had recently called her hair stylist and left a message with the hairstylist in which he claimed to be a detective an that he was looking for a “missing person” KMP. The hairstylist provided the voicemail to KMP and KMP said the voice was that of Lenyard.

Airtag Tracking

Cudahy Police Officer Drummond also reports that during their July 15, 2026 conversation KMP also advised her that Lenyard had placed an Airtag on her vehicle. KMP said he denied doing it, but that if he did he would have placed it “he would have done so on the passenger side tire.” She also advised that her phone had alerted her that an Airtag may have been following her. KMPM later took the car to the police to be checked, but nothing was located. She believes it was removed on January 2, 2026.

Prior Threats to Kill

Cudahy Police Officer Brian Olson reports that on April 14, 2026 he spoke with KMP. KMP came to the Cudahy Police Station and advised that Lenyard had been harassing her by making repeated calls and texts. She also said that he had mentioned in the past that he would kill both her and himself. KMP said that KMP owns “several guns.”
